

Create Database which includes information about books, users and employees

Give access to the librarians to modify the data about Books and Borrowers

Make user interface to users to search the books staff should check the books borrowed by the users automate the overdue notifications to the users

Generate reports on resources and users

Maintain the database