

Create a database which includes all information about student like personal details, Academic info etc

Create a User interface where the Students can check details

Add new Students to that database

Check the interface for security issues

Manage the student info according to their performance which includes attendance, Grades etc.

Generate reports based on performance